JOINT FINAL PRE-TRIAL ORDER

Pursuant to Local Rule 7016-1, (a) movant City of Detroit (“City”) and (b) objectors (i) Shirley V. Lightsey, President of the Detroit Retired City Employees Association (the “DRCEA”), (ii) Don Taylor, President of the Retired Detroit Police and Firefighters Association (the “RDPFFA”), (iii) the DRCEA, (iv) the RDPFFA, (v) the Official Committee of Retirees (the “Committee”), (vi) the Michigan Council 25 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (“AFSCME”), (vii) the UAW, (viii) the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit, (ix) the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit, (x) the Detroit Public Safety Unions; and (xi) the Retired Detroit Police Members Association to the City’s July 18, 2013 Motion (“Eligibility Motion”), have conferred and hereby submit the following Joint Final Pretrial Order for this Court's approval and adoption.

I. JURISDICTION

A. City of Detroit

The City asserts that this Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue for this matter is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. Objectors

The Objectors assert that this Court lacks the authority and jurisdiction to decide whether chapter 9 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code") violates the Constitution or to determine the constitutionality of PA 436, the Local Financial Stability and Choice Act, M.C.L. §141.1541, et seq. ("PA 436"). Accordingly, and with respect, this Court should immediately refer this constitutional challenge to chapter 9 and PA 436 to the District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

II. STATEMENT OF CITY'S CLAIMS

The City of Detroit asserts that it qualifies to be a debtor under Section 109(c) of Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and meets all of the eligibility requirements to seek debt relief under Chapter 9.

The City is a municipality as such term is defined in Section 101(40) of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 101(40). The City is a “political subdivision” of the State of Michigan and thus a “municipality” within the meaning of Section 101(40), and the eligibility requirement of section 109(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

The City is specifically authorized in its capacity as a municipality to be a debtor under Chapter 9 under the laws of the State of Michigan and by the appropriate state officers empowered thereby, as contemplated by Section 109(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 16, 2013 Kevyn D. Orr, the duly appointed Emergency Manager for the City (the “Emergency Manager”), based on his assessment of the City’s financial condition recommended to Richard Snyder, Governor of the State of Michigan, and Andrew Dillon, Treasurer of the State of Michigan, that the City be authorized to proceed under Chapter 9. On July 18, 2013, the Governor issued his written decision approving the Emergency Manager’s recommendation to seek protection under the bankruptcy laws. Pursuant thereto, also on July 18, 2013, the Emergency Manager issued an order approving the filing of the City’s Chapter 9 case consistent with the Governor’s authorization.

The City is insolvent within the meaning of Section 101(32)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. The City therefore meets the eligibility requirement of Section 109(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The City desires to effect a plan of adjustment under Section 109(c)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The City is unable to negotiate (or further negotiate) with its creditors because such negotiation is impracticable. The City has nevertheless negotiated in good faith with creditors who are represented and organized, but has failed to obtain the agreement of creditors holding at least a majority in amount of the claims of each class that the City intends to impair under a plan of adjustment in this Chapter 9 case.

III. STATEMENT OF OBJECTORS' CLAIMS

A. The Committee asserts the following claims:

1. The City cannot meet the criteria for eligibility under Section 109(c)(5)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that it did not put forth a plan of adjustment, and did not negotiate in good faith, both as required under that Section.
2. The City cannot establish that negotiations were impracticable under Section 109(c)(5)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that the City failed to set forth a plan of adjustment, and did not negotiate in good faith with classes of creditors with whom negotiations were practicable, both as required under that Section.

3. Because the Governor's authorization to file this bankruptcy case did not prohibit the City from impairing the pension rights of its employees and retirees, the authorization was not valid under the Michigan Constitution, as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(2).

4. The City cannot meet its burden under Section 921(c) of demonstrating that it filed its Chapter 9 petition in good faith, in that (a) the Emergency Manager commenced this proceeding for the purpose of using Chapter 9 as a vehicle to attempt to impair and violate rights relating to vested pensions that are explicitly protected under Article IX, Section 24, of the Michigan Constitution (the "Pension Clause") and (b) in connection with its petition, the City made representations that were inaccurate, misleading and/or incomplete.

B. The Detroit Public Safety Unions, consisting of the Detroit Fire Fighters Association (the "DFFA"), the Detroit Police Officers Association (the "DPOA"), the Detroit Police Lieutenants & Sergeants Association (the "DPLSA") and the Detroit Police Command Officers Association (the "DPCOA") assert the following claims:

1. The City failed to negotiate with the Detroit Public Safety Unions in good faith, as required by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(5)(B).

2. Michigan Public Act 436 of 2012 violates the Michigan Constitution and therefore the City was not validly authorized to file this bankruptcy case as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(2).

3. Because the Governor's authorization to file this bankruptcy case did not prohibit the City from impairing the pension rights of its employees and retirees, the authorization was not valid under the Michigan Constitution, as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(2).

4. Chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code violates the 10th Amendment of the United States Constitution, U.S. Const., Am. X, to the extent it can be read to authorize the City to impair the vested pension rights of City employees in violation of the Michigan Constitution.

5. The city was not "unable to negotiate with creditors because such negotiation is impracticable," as required (in the alternative) for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(5)(C).

6. The City's bankruptcy petition should be dismissed because it was filed in bad faith under 11 U.S.C. §921(c).

C. The Retiree Association Parties, consisting of the Retired Detroit Police & Fire Fighters Association (“RDPFFA”), Donald Taylor, individually and as President of the RDPFFA, the Detroit Retired City Employees Association (“DRCEA”), and Shirley V. Lightsey, individually and as President of the DRCEA assert the following claims:

1. The City failed to negotiate with the Retiree Association Parties in good faith, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(B).

2. The City was not “unable to negotiate with creditors because such negotiation is impracticable,” as required (in the alternative) for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(C).

3. Negotiations with the retiree constituents was practicable, as the DRCEA and the RDPFFA were ready, willing, and able to negotiate with the City as natural representatives of retirees.

4. Because the Governor’s authorization to file this bankruptcy case did not prohibit the City from impairing the pension rights of its employees and retirees, the authorization was not valid under the Michigan Constitution, as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(2).

5. The City’s bankruptcy petition should be dismissed because it was filed in bad faith under 11 U.S.C. §921(c).

D. UAW and the Flowers Plaintiffs assert the following claims:

The UAW and the Plaintiffs claim that the City of Detroit is not eligible for bankruptcy under Chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code for the reasons set forth in the Amended Joint Objection of International Union, UAW and the Flowers Plaintiffs to the City of Detroit, Michigan's Eligibility for an Order for Relief Under Chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code [DE 1170], the Objection of International Union, UAW to the City of Detroit, Michigan's Eligibility for an Order for Relief Under Chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code [DE 506] (to the extent such Objection is not superseded by DE 1170), the Objection of Robbie Flowers, Michael Wells, Janet Whitson, Mary Washington and Bruce Goldman to the Putative Debtor's Eligibility to be a Debtor [DE 504], and the Pre-Trial Brief of International Union, UAW and the Flowers Plaintiffs with Respect to the Eligibility of the City of Detroit, Michigan for an Order for Relief Under Chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code [filed October 17, 2013].

E. The Michigan Council 25 of the American Federation of State, County & Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO and Sub-Chapter 98, City of Detroit Retirees ("AFSCME") assert, in addition to and including herein by reference, the claims raised in this order, in filed pleadings, oral argument and adduced through evidence at trial, assert the following claims:

1. Chapter 9 violates the United States Constitution and AFSCME's active and retired members have individual standing to assert that chapter 9 violates the Constitution.
2. The City is not eligible to file for chapter 9 protection under 11 U.S.C. § 109(c) because (i) it is not authorized by Michigan State Law or the Michigan Constitution to be a Debtor under chapter 9, and (ii) the law purporting to authorize the City to file chapter 9 - PA 436 - is unconstitutional including, without limitation, because it violates the strong home rule provisions of the Michigan Constitution.

3. The City is not eligible to file for chapter 9 protection under 11 U.S.C. § 109(c) of the Bankruptcy Code because (i) it failed to participate in any good faith negotiations with creditors such as AFSCME prior to the filing for bankruptcy, and (ii) such negotiations were not impracticable, as required for eligibility under chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. The City's Petition should be dismissed under 11 U.S.C. § 921(c) because it was filed in bad faith.

5. The City has failed to meet its burden of proving its insolvency as require under 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(3).

F. The Retired Detroit Police Members Association (RDPMA) assert, in addition to and including herein by reference, the claims raised in this order by the other objectors, the claims set forth in pleadings, raised in oral argument and adduced through evidence presented at trial, assert the following claims:

1. The City of Detroit is not eligible for relief under Chapter 9 pursuant to Section 109(c) of the Bankruptcy Code because it is not authorized under Michigan State Law and the Constitution of the State of Michigan to be a debtor under Chapter 9.

2. Public Act 436 was passed in derogation of the right of referendum set forth in Article II Section 9 of the Michigan Constitution and is therefore unconstitutional under Michigan Law.

3. Emergency Manager Kevyn Orr was not authorized by Public Act 436 to file the instant Chapter 9 proceeding on behalf of the City of Detroit.

4. RDPMA's Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the March 2, 2012 1:35:25 PM Email from Jeffrey B. Ellman to Corinne Ball and copying Heather Lennox and Thomas Wilson.

5. RDPMA's Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of the March 3, 2012 4:00:44 PM Email from Heather Lennox to Andy Dillon and copying Corinne Ball, Hugh Sawyer, Jeffrey Ellman, Ken Buckfire, Kyle Herman, Laura Marcero, Sanjay Marken, BromStibitz, Stuart Erickson, David Kates and Thomas Wilson.

6. RDPMA's Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of the State of Michigan, Comprehensive Annual Financial Report, for the Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2012.

7. RDPMA's Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of the January 31, 2013 3:45:47 PM Email from Kevyn Orr to Corinne Ball and copying Stephen Brogan.

G. The Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit ("PRFS") and the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit (“GRS” and together with PFRS, the “Retirement Systems”) assert the following claims.

1. The City is not specifically authorized to be a debtor under chapter 9 by State law or a by a governmental officer empowered by State law to authorize such entity to be a debtor under such chapter and cannot satisfy 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(2).
2. The City cannot meet its burden of proof under 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(B) because it did not engage in good faith negotiations with its creditors.
3. The City cannot meet its burden of proof under 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(C) because it did not negotiate with its creditors and negotiations were not impracticable.
4. The City’s bankruptcy petition should be dismissed because the City did not file the petition in good faith as required by 11 U.S.C. § 921(c).

- (4) In re City of Bridgeport, 129 B.R. 332, 336-38 (Bankr. D. Conn. 1991) (test for municipal insolvency set forth at 11 U.S.C. § 101(32)(C)(ii) is a “cash flow” test; “[T]o be found insolvent a city must prove that it will be unable to pay its debts as they become due in its current fiscal year or, based on an adopted budget, in its next fiscal year.”).
- (5) Int’l Ass’n of Firefighters, Local 1186 v. City of Vallejo (In re City of Vallejo), 408 B.R. 280, 293-94 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2009) (a municipality need not pursue all possible means of generating and conserving cash prior to seeking chapter 9 relief; affirming finding of insolvency where raiding city’s other funds to satisfy short term cash needs “would leave Vallejo more debilitated tomorrow than it is today”; finding city insolvent where further funding reductions would threaten its ability to provide for the basic health and safety of its citizens).
- (6) New York City Off-Track Betting Corp., 427 B.R. at 282 (“Even assuming [the debtor] could have theoretically done more to avoid bankruptcy, courts do not require chapter 9 debtors to exhaust every possible option before filing for chapter 9 protection.”).

3. Whether the City desires to effect a plan to adjust its debts.

a. City’s authority

- (1) 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(4).
- (2) New York City Off-Track Betting Corp., 427 B.R. at 272 (“no bright-line test for determining whether a debtor desires to effect a plan” exists because of the “highly subjective nature of the inquiry”).
- (3) City of Vallejo, 408 B.R. at 294-95 (A putative debtor need only show that the “purpose of the filing of the chapter 9 petition [is] not simply ... to buy time or evade creditors”; a municipality may meet the subjective eligibility requirement of section 109(c)(4) by attempting to resolve claims, submitting a draft plan or producing other direct or circumstantial evidence customarily submitted to show intent).
- (4) City of Stockton, 493 B.R. at 791-92 (fact that a city would be left in worse financial condition as a result of the decision not to attempt to adjust its debts through the chapter 9 process is persuasive evidence of the municipality’s honest desire to effect such an adjustment of debt).

4. Whether the City was unable to negotiate with its creditors prior to the filing of its chapter 9 petition because such negotiation was impracticable.

a. City’s authority

- (1) 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(C).
- (2) New York City Off-Track Betting Corp., 427 B.R. at 276-77 (“Congress added [11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(C)] to satisfy section 109’s negotiation requirement in response to possible large municipality bankruptcy cases that could involve vast numbers of creditors.”; “[I]mpracticability of

- (4) City of Vallejo, 408 B.R. at 298 (“Petitioners may demonstrate impracticability by the sheer number of their creditors”; finding that section 109(c)(5)(C) is satisfied where negotiation with any significant creditor constituency is impracticable).
- (5) City of Stockton, 493 B.R. at 794 (finding that the inability of a municipal debtor to negotiate with a natural representative of a numerous and far-flung creditor class (with the power to bind such class) may satisfy the “impracticability” requirement; refusal of creditors to negotiate establishes independent grounds for a finding of impracticability).
- (6) In re Valley Health Sys., 383 B.R. 156, 163 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2008) (“Negotiations may also be impracticable when a municipality must act to preserve its assets and a delay in filing to negotiate with creditors risks a significant loss of those assets.”).

5. Whether the City negotiated in good faith with creditors holding at least a majority in amount of the claims of each class that the City intends to impair pursuant to a plan of adjustment.

a. City's authority

- (1) 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(B).
- (2) In re Vills. at Castle Rock Metro. Dist. No. 4, 145 B.R. 76, 84-85 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1990) (a municipality need not negotiate with every creditor within a given class; negotiations with large or prominent blocs of creditors will suffice to render a city eligible for chapter 9 relief; municipality satisfied requirement of negotiating with creditors by consulting with large institutional bondholders, even though all series of bonds were not invited to participate in negotiations).
- (3) New York City Off-Track Betting Corp., 427 B.R. at 274-75 (finding that debtor had satisfied section 109(c)(5)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code where it had “engaged in negotiations with creditors regarding the possible terms of a reorganization plan prior to filing”; stating that “talks need not involve a formal plan to satisfy section 109(c)(5)(B)’s negotiation requirement.”).
- (4) City of Vallejo, 408 B.R. at 297 (noting that section 109(c)(5)(B) is satisfied where the debtor conducts “negotiations with creditors revolving around a proposed plan, at least in concept.... [that] designates classes of creditors and their treatment....”).

6. Whether the City's petition was filed in good faith within the meaning of section 921(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

a. City's authority

- (1) 11 U.S.C. § 921(c).
- (2) City of Stockton, 493 B.R. at 794 (good faith “is assessed on a case-by-case basis in light of all the facts, which must be balanced against the broad remedial purpose of chapter 9”; “[r]elevant considerations in the comprehensive analysis for § 921 good faith include whether the City’s financial problems are of a nature contemplated by chapter 9, whether the reasons for filing are consistent with chapter 9, the extent of the City’s prepetition efforts to address the issues, the extent that alternatives to chapter 9 were considered, and whether the City’s residents would be prejudiced by denying chapter 9 relief.”).

- (3) Cnty. of Orange, 183 B.R. at 608 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1995) (“[T]he purpose of the filing must be to achieve objectives within the legitimate scope of the bankruptcy laws;” applying chapter 11 case law and finding the debtor’s financial condition and motives, local financial realities and whether the debtor was seeking to “unreasonably deter and harass its creditors or attempting to effect a speedy, efficient reorganization on a feasible basis” as relevant factors in the good faith analysis).
- (4) In re McCurtain Municipal Auth., No. 07-80363, 2007 WL 4287604, at *5 (Bankr. E.D. Okla. Dec. 4, 2007) (holding that the existence of a factor precipitating a chapter 9 filing does not require a finding that the debtor’s filing was made in bad faith when other reasons for filing bankruptcy are present).

B. Objectors’ position

B-1. The Committee identifies the following issues of fact and law to be litigated:

- 1. Whether the City can meet the criteria for eligibility under Section 109(c)(5)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and, in particular:

- a. whether the City presented a plan of adjustment to the City's creditors as is required under Section 109(c)(5)(B); and
- b. whether the City negotiated in good faith as is required under Section 109(c)(5)(B).

2. Whether the City can establish that good faith negotiations were impracticable under Section 109(c)(5)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code and, in particular:

- a. whether the City presented a plan of adjustment to the City's creditors as is required under Section 109(c)(5)(C); and
- b. whether the City negotiated in good faith with classes of creditors with whom negotiations were practicable, as is as required under Section 109(c)(5)(C).

3. Whether the Governor's authorization to file this bankruptcy case is void and/or unconstitutional under the Michigan Constitution because he did not prohibit the City from impairing the pension rights of its employees and retirees, as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(2).

4. Whether the City can meet its burden under 11. U.S.C. § 921(c) of demonstrating that it filed its Chapter 9 petition in good faith and, in particular:

- a. whether the City's Emergency Manager filed this Chapter 9 proceeding for the purpose of attempting to use Chapter 9 as a vehicle to impair and violate rights related to vested pensions that are expressly protected from such impairment and violation under the Pension Clause of the Michigan Constitution; and

- b. whether the City, in connection with filing its Chapter 9 petition, made representations that were false, misleading and or incomplete statements, particularly as regards the magnitude of the City's unfunded pension liability, the cash flow available to meet such liability and the availability of substantial additional cash from assets owned by the City that are capable of being monetized.

B-2. The Detroit Public Safety Unions, consisting of the Detroit Fire Fighters Association (the "DFFA"), the Detroit Police Officers Association (the "DPOA"), the Detroit Police Lieutenants & Sergeants Association (the "DPLSA") and the Detroit Police Command Officers Association (the "DPCOA") assert the following claims:

1. Whether the City failed to negotiate with the Detroit Public Safety Unions in good faith, as required by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(5)(B).
2. Whether Michigan Public Act 436 of 2012 violates the Michigan Constitution, Art. IX, Sec. 24, and therefore the City was not validly authorized to file this bankruptcy case as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(2).
3. Whether there was valid authorization for the filing of the chapter 9 petition as required by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(2), because the Governor's authorization did not prohibit the impairment of the pension rights of the City's employees and retirees, and therefore was not valid under the Michigan Constitution, Art. IX, Sec. 24 (the "Pension Clause").

4. Whether chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code violates the Tenth Amendment, U.S. Const., Am. X, to the extent it allows the City to use the Bankruptcy Code to impair the vested pension rights of City employees and retirees in direct violation of the Pension Clause.

5. Whether the city was not "unable to negotiate with creditors because such negotiation is impracticable," as required (in the alternative) for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(5)(C).

6. Whether the City's bankruptcy petition should be dismissed because it was filed in bad faith under 11 U.S.C. §921(c).

B-3. The Retiree Association Parties, consisting of the Retired Detroit Police & Fire Fighters Association ("RDPFFA"), Donald Taylor, individually and as President of the RDPFFA, the Detroit Retired City Employees Association ("DRCEA"), and Shirley V. Lightsey, individually and as President of the DRCEA identify the following issues of fact and law to be litigated:

1. Whether the City failed to negotiate with the Retiree Association Parties in good faith, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(B).

2. Whether City was not "unable to negotiate with creditors because such negotiation is impracticable," as required (in the alternative) for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(C).

3. Whether negotiations with the retiree constituents was practicable, as the DRCEA and the RDPFFA were ready, willing, and able to negotiate with the City as natural representatives of retirees.

4. Whether the Governor's authorization to file this bankruptcy case is void and/or unconstitutional under the Michigan Constitution because he did not prohibit the City from impairing the pension rights of its employees and retirees, as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(2).

5. Whether the City's bankruptcy petition should be dismissed because it was filed in bad faith under 11 U.S.C. §921(c).

B-4. The UAW and the Flowers Plaintiffs identify the following factual and legal issues to be litigated:¹

1. Whether the City has met the eligibility requirement of Section 109(c)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code that a municipality “desires to effect a plan to adjust such debts” where the City’s proposed plan is a plan that cannot be lawfully implemented under state law as required by Section 943(b)(4) and (6) of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Whether the City failed to negotiate with the UAW in good faith, as required by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(5)(B).

¹ The issues set forth herein are the UAW’s and the Flowers Plaintiffs’ principal legal and factual issues to be presented at, or in connection with, the eligibility trial. UAW reserves all of the issues set forth in its Amended Objection which (a) are not listed herein but which may depend upon the resolution of its principal issues set forth above or (b) have been asserted and argued principally by other parties, such as whether the decision in Webster must be applied by the bankruptcy court.

3. Whether the City was unable to negotiate with creditors because such negotiation was impracticable as required (in the alternative) for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. §109(c)(5)(C).

4. Whether the City was authorized to be a debtor under Chapter 9 as required by 11 U.S.C. Section 109(c)(2), as follows: whether the Governor's authorization was valid under State law, where (a) the City and the Governor manifested an intent to proceed in Chapter 9 in order to reduce the accrued pension rights of the City's employees and retirees, and the accrued pension rights of employees and retirees of the Detroit Public Library; (b) the City and the Governor did so proceed based on such intent of the City and the Governor, which in whole or in part motivated the Governor's authorization for the City's Chapter 9 filing and the City's filing itself; (c) the Governor's authorization did not prohibit the diminishment or impairment of the pension rights of such persons as a condition of authorizing the Chapter 9 filing; (d) neither the Governor nor the state Legislature were had authority to act in derogation of Article 9, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution; and (e) for any and all of the foregoing reasons, the Governor's authorization for the Chapter 9 filing, and the City's filing itself were and are contrary to the Michigan Constitution, Art. 9, Sec. 24.

5. Whether the City's bankruptcy petition was filed in bad faith under 11 U.S.C. §921(c).

6. Whether, under the U.S. Constitution, Chapter 9 is constitutional as applied to the City's petition where the City does not comply with Article 9, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution.

B-5. The Michigan Council 25 of the American Federation of State, County & Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO and Sub-Chapter 98, City of Detroit Retirees ("AFSCME") assert, in addition to and including herein by reference, the claims raised in this order, in filed pleadings, oral argument and adduced through evidence at trial, identifies the following issues of fact and law to be litigated:

1. Whether the City failed to negotiate in good faith with creditors as required by 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5), including, without limitation:

- a. Whether the City engaged only in "discussions," which it emphasized were not negotiations.
- b. Whether the City's June 14, 2013 Restructuring Plan was not open to negotiations, which falls short of the requirements of section 109(c)(5)(B).
- c. Whether the City refused AFSCME's offers to negotiate.
- d. Whether the City refused AFSCME's requests for adequate backup data used to generate the City's financial assumptions, which would have been necessary information for any "negotiations."
- e. Whether the City's refusal to negotiate with AFSCME continued post-filing.
- f. Whether assuming, arguendo, that any negotiations took place, such negotiations did not relate to a plan that was in the best interests of creditors as required by section 109(c)(5)(B).

2. Whether the City can meet its burden of proving that it was "unable to negotiate with creditors because such negotiation is impracticable," as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(C), and including, without limitation:

- a. Whether the circumstances surrounding the City's hiring of the EM, an experienced bankruptcy counsel demonstrate that the City never had any intention of negotiating outside of bankruptcy.
- b. Whether negotiations with the City's main creditors, the unions, its retirees, and the bond trustees, were practicable.
- c. Whether the City cannot demonstrate impracticability where the City failed to negotiate with its largest creditors, especially where those creditors have, like AFSCME, sought negotiations.

3. Whether the City's bankruptcy petition should be dismissed because it was filed in bad faith under 11 U.S.C. § 921(c), including, without limitation:

- a. Whether the State authorized (without contingencies) and the City commenced its filing to avoid a bad state court ruling in the Webster litigation, and declined to take action to cease the filing in violation of the Declaratory Judgment issued in that litigation.

- b. Whether the City never intended to negotiate (in good faith or otherwise) and failed to consider reasonable alternatives to chapter 9.

4. Whether the City is "insolvent," as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(32)(C)) and as required for eligibility by 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(3), including, without limitation:

- a. Whether the City has failed to prove its insolvency by expert evidence, by expert testimony, or by anything other than unproven assumptions (including assumptions regarding the unfunded amount of the City's pension and other retiree benefits).
- b. Whether the City failed to explore options to enable it to pay debts, such as taking into account un-monetized assets and possible funding sources not included in the City's financial projections.
- c. Whether the City's current financial difficulties are less severe than in prior years, and the City already had means to enhance revenues prior to the filing including the deal reached with the swap counterparties.

5. Whether the Governor's authorization to the EM to file for chapter 9 under Section 11 of PA 436 was improper, including, without limitation, because it was invalid, unconstitutional, failed to contain contingencies (such as not using the bankruptcy proceedings to diminish vested pension benefits), and/or failed to require that any plan of adjustment not violate Article IX Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution.

- a. Whether the EM's exercise of authority under PA 436 violated the strong home rule provisions of the Michigan Constitution.

B-6. The Retired Detroit Police Members Association ("RDPMA")
assert, in addition to and including herein by reference, the claims raised in this order by the other objectors, the claims set forth in pleadings, raised in oral argument and adduced through evidence presented at trial, identifies the following issues of fact and law to be litigated:

1. Whether Public Act 436 violates the Michigan Constitution, Article II, Section 9.
 - a. Whether the spending provisions found in Sections 34 and 35 of Public Act 436 were included as an artifice to avoid the referendum provisions in Art. II, Sec. 9 of the Michigan Constitution.
 - b. Whether any provisions of Public Act 436 should be stricken on the grounds that such provisions were not approved by a majority of the electors of the State of Michigan in a general election.
2. Whether the City of Detroit acted in bad faith when it filed its Chapter 9 Petition having knowledge that Public Act 436 was passed in derogation of the Michigan Constitutional referendum requirement.
3. Whether Emergency Manager Kevyn Orr was properly appointed under Public Act 436.

B-7. The Retirement Systems identify the following issues of fact and law to be litigated:

1. Whether the City was validly authorized under State law by a governmental officer empowered by State law to authorize it to be a debtor when the Governor's authorization was in violation of Article IX, section 24 of the Michigan Constitution, because the authorization did not prohibit the City from diminishing or impairing accrued financial benefits.

2. Whether the City failed to negotiate in good faith prepetition with the Retirement Systems (and possibly other creditors), when all meetings with the Retirement Systems (and possibly other creditors) were presentations to an audience of multiple parties at which no bilateral negotiations occurred.

3. Whether the City can meet its burden of proof under 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(B).

4. Whether negotiations with the Retirement Systems and the City's other creditors were impracticable.

5. Whether the City can meet its burden of proof under 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(5)(C).

6. Whether the City can meet its burden of proof under 11 U.S.C. § 921(c) and demonstrate that it filed the bankruptcy petition in good faith when:

- a. The City filed the case with the intention to diminish and impair accrued financial benefits in violation of Article IX, section 24 of the Michigan Constitution;
- b. The Emergency Manager repeatedly threatened to file a bankruptcy immediately in the weeks before the filing, thus otherwise creating an environment of impracticability;

- c. As of the petition date, the Emergency Manager and the City did not have a clear picture of the City's assets, income, cash flow, and liabilities;
- d. The City did not even consider a restructuring scenario that did not impair accrued financial benefits; and
- e. Whether the City can demonstrate that it negotiated in good faith under section 109(c)(5) and the case law construing it where the City has admitted it does not have (and therefore did not negotiate) a formulated plan of adjustment.

ITEM NO. 24

from Milliman (the City's actuarial consultant), regarding the City's unfunded pension liability, but will instead testify about the level of unfunded liability that has been reported by the pension funds themselves. Specifically, his testimony will rely upon his personal knowledge of particular financial records reviewed during his work as a Certified Public Accountant ("CPA"), and will involve straightforward calculations derived from the pensions funds' own actuarial reports (which the Objectors have agreed are admissible). Although Mr. Moore's knowledge as a CPA may have made him more efficient at reviewing the City's pension records, his review and resulting perceptions do not implicate Rule 702.

This Court has broad discretion to rule on evidentiary issues under Rules 701 and 702 of the Federal Rules of Evidence. See JGR, Inc. v. Thomasville Furniture Indus., Inc., 370 F.3d 519, 524 (6th Cir. 2004) (evidentiary rulings reviewed for abuse of discretion); United States v. Bartholomew, 310 F.3d 912, 920 (6th Cir. 2002) (same).

It is well established that lay witnesses may testify based on their own perceptions or "personal observation[s]" of historical facts. Harris v. J.B. Robinson Jewelers, 627 F.3d 235, 241 (6th Cir. 2010). In addition, a non-expert witness may testify "in the form of opinions or inferences" if these "are (a) rationally based on the perception of the witness, (b) helpful to a clear understanding of the witness' testimony or the determination of a fact in issue, and

(c) not based on scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge within the scope of Rule 702.” Fed. R. Evid. 701. See also Harris, 527 F.3d at 240 (noting that “the modern trend among courts favors the admission of opinion testimony, provided that it is well founded on personal knowledge and susceptible to specific cross-examination”) (citation omitted).

The fact that a witness may have expert credentials does not preclude him from testifying as a non-expert witness. “As the precedent clarifies, the Federal Rules of Evidence distinguish between lay and expert testimony, not witnesses.” United States v. White, 492 F.3d 380, 403 (6th Cir. 2007) (emphasis in original). As a result, a witness with “expert” credentials “may properly offer lay testimony,” even if he is “precluded from putting forth expert testimony” on the same subject. Id. In such a case, the witness may offer testimony based on “personal knowledge of facts relevant to the case,” based on tasks such as “auditing cost reports” that have been prepared by someone else. Id.

The case of United States v. Madison, 226 Fed. Appx. 535 (6th Cir. 2007) (unpublished), is instructive. In that case, the Government called an FBI “financial analyst” to “facilitate[] [the] review of accounting records,” to prove that a criminal defendant “would not have been able to make [a] down payment . . . without funds converted from [a victim].” Id. at 544. That testimony did not rise to the level of expert testimony because it was based on reports that had already been prepared by someone else, and the witness's analysis was only "a matter of arithmetic." Id. Quoting approvingly from a similar case in the Eleventh Circuit, the Court noted that "while [the witness's] expertise . . . may have made him more efficient at reviewing [the financial] records, his review itself was within the capacity of any reasonable lay person." Id. at 543-44 (quoting United States v. Hamaker, 455 F.3d 1316, 1331-32 (11th Cir. 2006)).

Here, the testimony of Mr. Moore is of a piece. Far from offering his own complex financial analysis of the City's unfunded pension liability, he will testify only to his own personal observations of the numbers contained in recent reports submitted by Gabriel Roeder, the actuary employed by the pension funds themselves. To the extent Mr. Moore applies any of his own analysis to those reports, he will use basic math to show how the pension funds' own underfunding calculations relate to the City's financial forecasts (which the Objectors also agree are admissible). Contrary to the Committee's contention, he will not engage in any "complicated tasks such as calculating life-expectancy, assessing amortization rates, . . . discounting to present value, or calculating earnings potential in a pension portfolio." Motion at ¶ 6. Nor will he offer testimony about actuarial assumptions, estimated investment returns, or anything else cited by the Committee. See id. ¶ 8.

In addition, Mr. Moore will testify about why the City retained his firm and the tasks he was asked to undertake as its restructuring advisor. Once again, his testimony regarding these issues will be based on his perceptions and personal observations and will not implicate Rule 702. To be sure, Mr. Moore's experience and credentials as a CPA may add to his credibility and provide some reason to give weight to his testimony, but the actual substance of his testimony will not implicate Rule 702.

STATE OF MICHIGAN'S RESPONSE TO MOTION OF INTERNATIONAL UNION, UAW AND FLOWERS PLAINTIFFS TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS WITHHELD ON GROUND OF PRIVILEGE BY THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

The State of Michigan, through its undersigned counsel, submits this Response to Motion of International Union, UAW and Flowers Plaintiffs (collectively, "UAW") to Compel Production of Documents Withheld on Grounds of Privilege by the State of Michigan (the "Motion to Compel").

INTRODUCTION

The first matter at issue in the UAW's Motion to Compel is an Email message from Richard Baird, the State's Transformation Manager, to Kevyn Orr dated March 12, 2013 (the "March 12 Email"). The State produced the March 12 Email, with the portions conveying legal advice redacted, along with unredacted copies of the attachments to the email, and indicated on its privilege log that March 12 Email was redacted as privileged because it “forward[ed] attorney’s legal advice.” While the State does not agree with the UAW’s asserted challenges and does not waive or alter the Common Interest Agreement or any attorney-client communication privilege, in an effort to resolve this discovery dispute raised on the eve of trial, it is producing the challenged document.

The second issue is whether the Common Interest Agreement between the City and State precludes disclosure of privilege communications between “the Governor, the Governor’s lawyers, Mr. Orr and/or Mr. Orr’s lawyers.” The Court has already determined that it does.

The Common Interest Agreement is between the City, now represented by the Emergency Manager, and the State. Although the formalizing of this Agreement was “on or around the appointment of the Emergency Manager,” the common interests of the City and the State began as early as April 9, 2012 with implementation of the Financial Stability Agreement. These common interests include “the legal and policy issues that arise as a result of and in relation to the City's financial emergency, the appointment of the Emergency Manager, and the Bankruptcy Case.” (Exhibit B, Common Interest Agreement, p. 3). Thus, the Governor's assertions of attorney-client privilege related to discussions with the Emergency Manager, the City's lawyers, and members of his executive and legal staff, are proper. These communications involved “legal and policy issues” arising “as a result of and in relation to the City's financial emergency” and/or the bankruptcy case. The Governor is entitled to the protection of the attorney-client privilege when acting in his individual executive capacity and is not a “public body” within the meaning of the State's Open Meetings Act, contrary to the UAW's assertion.

As to entries on the State's privilege log that the UAW characterizes as “insufficient,” the State disagrees with this characterization. Yet, the State agreed to the UAW's request on October 18, 2013. (UAW's Motion, Doc. 1294-3, Ex. B, pp. 2-3 of 33.) The State's revised Privilege Logs were e-mailed and mailed to the UAW's counsel. The State does not agree, however, that it has waived its right to assert privilege based on the nature and character of its initial and/or amended privilege logs.

ARGUMENT

I. The State Has Agreed to Produce the Requested March 12, 2013 Email

In an effort to resolve this dispute and without waiving or amending the Common Interest Agreement, the State is agreeing to produce the March 12, 2013 Email at issue. It is attached as Exhibit A.

II. The Governor Properly Invoked Attorney-Client Privilege During His Deposition

The UAW argues that the City and the State have used the common-interest theory to block inquiry into their joint communications concerning the decision to pursue this chapter 9 filing. Motion to Compel, p. 3. This assertion is wholly incorrect and unsupported by any testimony or evidence.

B. The Governor's assertion of attorney-client privilege in the context of the Common Interest Agreement is consistent with this Court's September 19, 2013 ruling and subsequent order.

The Governor's assertion of attorney-client privilege in the context of the Common Interest Agreement is consistent with the Court's September 19, 2013 ruling and its subsequent order.

First, the common interest agreement clearly involves more than the bankruptcy filing. In fact, the agreement specifically identifies the common interests as "including but not limited to, those in connection with the legal and policy issues that arise as a result of and in relation to the City's Financial Emergency, [and] the appointment of the Emergency Manager." Common Interest Agreement, pp. 2-3, emphasis added, attached as Exhibit B. The Governor asserted attorney-client privilege to discussions occurring at the weekly meetings between himself, his executive and legal staff, the Emergency Manager, and the City's attorneys, which he described as discussing the strategies, policies, updates, and other issues related to the City's financial emergency. The State and the City's common interests described in the Agreement are clearly involved in these discussions.

Second, these discussions involved legal strategy and advice. At the September 19 Hearing, the Court analogized the relationship between the City and the State to that of a corporation and its board of directors. The Court reasoned that if the board, its lawyer, the corporation's lawyer and the corporate management all met together, the common interest privilege would shield those communications. While the Court's analogy was in the context of a bankruptcy filing, the Court's reasoning would be equally applicable to a board's appointment of the corporation's CEO, and documents communicating legal advice from the board's lawyer to the CEO just prior, and relating to, the CEO's appointment. Consistent with the Court's September 19, 2013 ruling and subsequent order, attorney-client privilege attached and was properly invoked by the Governor.

Third, while the State appropriately invoked the attorney-client privilege to protect the content of conversations and discussions occurring at these meetings, the deposition questions for which the privilege was invoked related to the treatment of pension benefits, and other provisions, of the Emergency Manager's June 2013 proposal to creditors—not to “the decision to pursue the Chapter 9 filing.”

Moreover, the Governor freely testified as to his understanding, views, thoughts, and recollection of facts in response to every topic addressed at the deposition, even when the State could not disclose specific discussions.

Examples of the Governor's testimony in this regard—taken from the deposition transcript excerpts attached by the UAW— are:

Q. Well, between March 28, 2013 and June 14, 2013, did you have discussions with Kevyn Orr about a business plan or a restructuring plan or a redevelopment plan of the City of Detroit?

A. Kevyn Orr was building a plan for creditors they presented in June of this year.

Q. Did you have discussions with him with regard to that plan before the June presentation?

A. I had discussions that would have been subject to attorney-client privilege.

Q. Is it your understanding that that plan includes a two billion dollar note for unsecured creditors?

A. Yes.

Q. And what's your understanding of what that plan includes with regard to vested pension benefits for the citizens of Detroit?

A. The proposal includes some portion of that note being allocated towards pensioners.

Transcript, pp. 11-12.

Q. Well, assuming that there is a reduction for the moment in pension benefits, have you had any conversations with Kevyn Orr with regard to whether or not there would be any other benefit or provision made to the retirees of the City of Detroit that were going to lose pension benefits as a result of that plan?

A. Those discussions would have been subject to attorney-client privilege.

Q. What's your understanding of the options that are available to the City of Detroit?

A. Well, again, we're in bankruptcy now so there's been no plan presented by the City at this point in time, so that's a hypothetical.

Q. Do you believe it's fair to have the bankruptcy attorney and other bankruptcy professionals paid ahead of retirees in connection with the Chapter 9 process?

A. I view that as a legal matter because that's a subject matter of how Chapter 9 bankruptcies work.

Q. The question I was asking was whether or not you believe it's fair. I'm not asking you whether or not it's a legal matter.

A. Well, I view it as just speculation on my part because we're in Chapter 9, so that would be part of the legal process.

Transcript, pp. 14-15

Q. For that same period of time, during the interview process and up to and including July 18th or 19th, did you have any conversation with Kevyn Orr with regard to selling or monetizing assets such as the art, Belle Isle and water and sewer and other assets of Detroit?

A. Those discussions would have been subject to attorney-client privilege.

Q. Is it your understanding that the sale of assets are one of the things that are consideration in connection with the restructuring plan that Kevyn Orr proposed during June of 2013?

A. I don't recall that portion of the proposal.

Q. What's your view on monetizing these assets as part of a restructuring plan including the art, Belle Isle and water and sewer and some of the other assets of Detroit?

A. Again, that's a hypothetical discussion because it would really come down to what's presented in the plan of adjustment within the context of the bankruptcy court, and it hasn't been done at this point.

Transcript, pp. 43-44

Discussions between the Governor, the Emergency Manager the Emergency Manager's counsel and/or the State's counsel relating to the treatment of pension benefits, whether prior to or after the Chapter 9 filing, are discussions of legal issues that are protected by attorney-client privilege through the common interest agreement. That privilege was properly invoked during the Governor's deposition.

C. The Governor is not subject to the Open Meetings Act.

In a footnote, the UAW asserts that the Governor's refusal to answer deposition questions involving his discussions with Mr. Orr is "contrary to the Open Meetings Law. . ." and thus shields the deliberations of public officials from disclosure. Motion to Compel, p. 5, fn 2. The UAW is incorrect. The Governor is not subject to the Open Meetings Act (OMA) where, as here, he is not a “public body” when acting in his individual executive capacity.

Mich. Comp. Laws 15.262(a) defines a public body as:

[A]ny state or local legislative or governing body, including a board, commission, committee, subcommittee, authority, or council, that is empowered by state constitution, statute charter ordinance, resolution, or reule to exercise governmental or proprietary authority or perform a governmental or proprietary function

Michigan appellate courts have held that an individual executive acting in his executive capacity is not a “public body” for purposes of OMA. See, e.g., Herald Co. v. Bay City, 614 N.W.2d 873, 883 (Mich. 2000) (city manager not a public body); Davis v. City of Detroit Financial Review Team, 821 N.W.2d 896, 905 (Mich. App. 2012) (When acting in his official capacity with authority derived from the Constitution or by statute, State Treasurer is not a public body). “Public body” denotes a collective entity and “does not encompass individuals.” Herald Co., 614 N.W.2d at 882. Accordingly, the Governor’s refusal to answer deposition questions involving his discussions with Mr. Orr was not contrary to the OMA.

D. The UAW's Objections to the State's Assertion of Attorney-Client Privilege at the Governor's Deposition is incorrect, untimely, and prejudicial.

Despite the speedy progression of the bankruptcy proceedings, the UAW has literally waited until the eve of trial to raise this objection. They did not object to the assertion of attorney-client privilege during the deposition, despite the Court's offer to be available during the deposition to resolve any problems that might arise. Nor did they raise a written objection in the nearly two weeks since the deposition. The UAW's delay prejudices the City and the State in terms of overall trial preparation and potentially places additional costs on these parties to produce these documents at trial. The UAW has waived this objection.

III. While The State Disagrees With The UAW's Characterization, The State Has Revised Its Privilege Logs To Provide the Additional Detail Requested

The UAW characterizes the State's Privilege Logs as "insufficient." Motion to Compel, p. 6. The UAW also claims that the State has waived its right to assert privilege. Id.

The State disagrees with the UAW's characterization of the entries on its privilege logs, instead asserting that the logs were sufficient as presented. Again, in an effort to resolve this discovery dispute raised on the eve of trial, the State agreed to revise its Privilege Logs (attached as Exhibit C.) These revised Privilege Logs have been emailed and mailed to counsel. Despite this agreement, which was given to UAW's counsel on October 18, 2013, the UAW still included this issue in its motion to compel.

The State disagrees that it has waived its right to assert attorney-client privilege. First, the initial log met the minimum requirements for providing sufficient detail to demonstrate that the communications in question were in fact confidential communications relating to legal advice. Contrary to the UAW's assertions, the State did more than offered "conclusory" statements.

The UAW also provides no support for the proposition that a Privilege Log cannot be amended. Indeed, the opposite is true. See, e.g., Pulte Homes, Inc. v. American Guarantee, and Liability Ins. Co. No. 09-CV-11616, 2011 WL 8212 (E.D. Mich. January 3, 2011) (noting that the defendant "has already amended this privilege log once.") (Attached as Exhibit D.) As was true in Pulte Homes, Inc. v. American Guarantee, and Liability Ins. Co., No. 09-CV-11616, 2011 WL 8212 (E.D. Mich. January 3, 2011), the State is entitled to amend its privilege log without the loss of the asserted privilege. Unlike Pulte, the State's privilege logs were not bare bones, required only modest modification, if at all, and was not voluntarily at the request of the UAW's counsel.

CONCLUSION

For the above reasons, the State requests that the Court deny the UAW's Motion to Compel.

Yes. I just wondered if we might save ourselves an issue with the City and some of our "friends" there if we volunteered to pick up the expenses too, but it might be argued that the appropriation in PA 436 doesn't cover expenses. I'm OK with leaving as is but just thought I would raise it.

I agree with Brom's suggestion re internal controls and adding "City or State" to the second contract. Yes, we will be OK with the items Rich mentions with this revision to the contract. Just curious as to why expense reimbursement under the second contract comes from the City when the state is responsible for the salary?? I don't care either way but it raises a question in my mind.

Subject: RE: Draft Contracts

Based on the conversations we have had over here at Treasury in the last week or two, let me suggest that the second contract be changed so that Section 3.2 read like this instead (my change in red):

3.2 Salary. The Emergency ~~Financial~~ Manager's salary for services rendered under this Contract shall be $275,000 per year. If this Contract is terminated after the Emergency ~~Financial~~ Manager has provided services for a portion of a month, the Emergency ~~Financial~~ Manager shall be entitled, for that portion of that month, to $22,916.67 multiplied by the proportion that the number of days of the month for which services were provided bears to the number of days of the whole month. The Emergency Manager shall not receive or accept any compensation from the City or State except as provided for in this contract.

For Mike and Rich, our conversation focused around how to avoid the next Art Blackwell situation, where a manager is paying themselves out of City funds for things they aren't entitled to.

The other suggestion that I would throw out (again for that worst case scenario) is that we add language to section 3.4 in both contracts (existing language below) that requires a second person in the City to sign off any expense reimbursements going to the manager. It could be the CFO, finance director, or a finance clerk for all I care. I just think a second set of eyes on these things would be good to make sure everything is above board.

3.4 Reimbursement for Actual and Necessary Expenses. The actual and necessary expenses of the Emergency Financial Manager, including customary expenses related to travel, meals, and lodging which are incurred in connection with service to the City will be reimbursed by the City. The Emergency Financial Manager shall provide original copies of all receipts for meals, lodging, and travel reimbursement with any request for reimbursement.

My two cents.

EXHIBIT B - Common Interest Agreement

Common Interest Agreement

This Common Interest Agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into between the following undersigned parties (collectively, the "Parties"): (a) the State of Michigan (the "State"), and (b) the City of Detroit, Michigan (the "City"), by and through its Emergency Manager, Kevyn D. WHEREAS, it is the intention of the Parties that no Shared Materials shall be disclosed to any member of the Attorney General's office or other state representative that has taken, is taking, or plans to take a position in the Bankruptcy Case adverse to the position of the City and the Emergency Manager consistent with the Attorney General's internal conflict wall;

Failure to include this header/footer will not undermine the protections afforded hereunder.

4. If any person or entity subpoenas, requests under the Michigan Freedom of Information Act, or otherwise demands any Shared Materials from any of the Parties, their counsel, or their agents, such recipient of the subpoena, request, or demand shall immediately notify all of the Parties' counsel. In addition, the recipient shall take all steps necessary to assert all applicable rights, privileges, and immunities with respect to the Shared Materials to ensure that the Shared Materials remain confidential unless that confidentiality or privilege has been expressly waived in writing by the Party asserting confidentiality or privilege. If a request for Shared Materials is made under the Michigan Freedom of Information Act, the recipient shall raise any and all applicable defenses and/or exemptions under Mich. Comp. Laws § 15.243 available to it or to any other Party to avoid disclosure unless the confidentiality or privilege for the Shared Materials or individual documents or communications that are part of the Shared Materials has been expressly waived in writing by the Party asserting confidentiality or privilege. Waiver of the confidentiality or privilege for an individual document or communication does not waive the confidentiality or privilege of all Shared Materials. The recipient also shall allow the other affected Parties a reasonable opportunity to intervene and be heard, and otherwise cooperate fully with the other affected parties in any administrative or judicial proceeding relating to the disclosure of Shared Materials.

5. The Parties, their counsel, and their agents are not obliged to communicate any independently obtained or created materials with any other Party, counsel, or agent as a result of this Agreement.

6. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to create an attorney-client relationship between any persons, including the attorneys that have signed this Agreement. The fact that any attorney has signed this Agreement shall not in any way preclude that attorney from representing any interest that may be construed to be adverse to any other Party or Party's agent, and shall not be used as a basis for seeking to disqualify any counsel from representing any other party in this or any other proceeding or matter; and no attorney who has signed this Agreement shall be disqualified from examining or cross-examining any Party or other person who testifies at any proceeding, whether under a grant of immunity or otherwise, because of such attorney's participation in this Agreement.

7. Either Party may withdraw from this Agreement by promptly sending written notice to the other Party, in which case this Agreement shall no longer be operative. The withdrawing Party shall comply with any request to return or destroy any Shared Materials, and shall continue to be bound by the obligations of confidentiality with respect to the Shared Materials previously furnished pursuant to this Agreement.

8. If a Party inadvertently produces any Shared Materials provided by another Party to an entity that is not a Party to this Agreement, in a manner that is not authorized by the terms of this Agreement, such production shall not be deemed a waiver of the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or immunity of any Party hereto. In such circumstances, the producing Party must immediately notify the Party whose Shared Materials are included in such inadvertently produced Shared Materials and must further notify the receiving entity of the inadvertent production and request the return or confirmed destruction of the privileged materials.

9. If a Party inadvertently produces to any or all of the other Parties a privileged document or privileged material that was not intended to be provided under this Agreement, the production of that document or other material shall not be deemed to constitute the waiver of any applicable privileges. In such circumstances, the producing Party must immediately notify the receiving Party of the inadvertent production, and request the return or confirmed destruction of the privileged materials. Within five days of receiving such notification, the receiving Party shall return or confirm destruction of all such documents or other materials, including any derivative works thereof.

10. This Agreement incorporates all prior oral understandings and it extends to all prior exchanges of Shared Materials. This Agreement is the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to this subject matter and may be modified only by a duly signed writing.

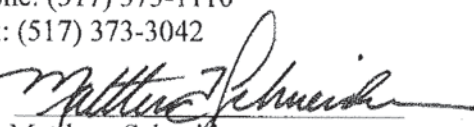

11. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan.

12. This Agreement may not be amended or modified except by a written agreement signed by each signatory of this Agreement.

13. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each counterpart constituting an original, but all together one and the same agreement.

AND DENYING IN PART PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL AMERICAN GUARANTEE AND
LIABILITY INSURANCE COMPANY TO PRODUCE
COMPLETE RESPONSES TO DISCOVERY (DOCKET NO. 53)

MONA K. MAJZOUB, United States Magistrate Judge.

*1 This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion To Compel American Guarantee And Liability Insurance Company to Produce Complete Responses To Discovery filed on October 1, 2010. (Docket no. 53). Defendant filed a Response Brief in Opposition on October 19, 2010. (Docket no. 58).

Plaintiff filed a Reply Brief on October 26, 2010. (Docket no. 63). The parties filed a Joint Statement of Resolved and Unresolved Issues on December 13, 2010. (Docket no. 71). This matter was referred to the undersigned for hearing and determination pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636\(b\)\(1\)\(A\). (Docket no. 54). The Court heard oral argument on this matter on December 20, 2010. The matter is ready for ruling.

On April 6, 2010 Plaintiff served on Defendant its First Set of Interrogatories, First Set of Requests For Admission and First Set of Requests for Production of documents. On May 24, 2010 Defendant served responses and objections. Correspondence ensued between the parties. On September 8, 2010 Defendant served supplemental answers, responses and objections to some of the discovery. Plaintiff brings this motion to compel full and complete responses to the following: Request for Admission Nos. 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 19 and 20; Interrogatory Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9, 12 and 13; and Request for Production Nos. 6, 9, 20, 21, 22, 27, 31, 32 and 33. Prior to the hearing the parties resolved Request for Production No. 20.

For the reasons set forth on the record the Court ordered the following:

- A. Request for Admission Nos. 6, 7, and 9 are deemed admitted;
- B. Request for Admission Nos. 4, 8, 10, 11 and 14 are deemed denied;
- C. Plaintiff's Motion is denied as to Request for Admission Nos. 12, 13 and 15 because Defendant's answers comply with Fed.R.Civ.P. 36 and are admitted in part and denied in part as set forth therein;
- D. Request for Admission Nos. 19 and 20 are stricken as ambiguous;

E. Defendant will amend its answers to the following: Interrogatory No. 6 to respond directly to the Interrogatory and state with respect to each activity whether it was completed and the results thereof; Interrogatory No. 8 to specifically identify all instances when it requested information about the claims and Plaintiff did not provide access or information, Interrogatory No. 12 and Interrogatory No. 13 to answer in full based on the information Defendant now has available;

F. Defendant will amend its answer to Interrogatory No. 9 to answer in full without objection. See United States v. Roxworthy, 457 F.3d 590, 593 (6th Cir., 2006); Fine v. Bellefonte Underwriters Ins., Co., 91 F.R.D. 420, 422 (D.C.N.Y.1981); and Janicker v. George Washington University, 94 F.R.D. 648, 650 (D.D.C.1982);

G. Plaintiff's Motion to Compel is denied as to Interrogatory No. 7;

H. Defendant will serve amended full responses and all responsive documents to Request for Production No. 6, Request for Production No. 9 (limited to the period from May 1, 1997 through 2001), and Request For Production No. 27 (limited to the period from September 1, 2006 through the present);

*2 I. Plaintiff's Motion to Compel was denied as to Request for Production No. 31 as not limited to relevant information, Fed.R.Civ.P. 26\(b\)\(1\), and 33 as overly broad, not sufficiently specific and not limited to relevant information.

The Court now rules on the remaining Request for Production Nos. 21, 22 and 32, which were taken under advisement. Request for Production No. 21 seeks the complete file maintained by Alan Gray. Request for Production No. 22 asks for "[a]ll documents Zurich sent to or received from the Affiliated Alan Gray Companies relating to the Zurich Policies, the Legion Policies, the Claim and the Action." Defendant argues that the Alan Gray file and documents are protected by the attorney-client privilege. Mr Gray is not a party to this action and he is not an officer of either party. Defendant retained Mr. Gray's forensic accounting firm in 2007 to investigate the bases of Plaintiff's claims FNI.

FNI. The Gray audit concluded in August 2008 with a draft report. Defendant's counsel stated that the draft report has been produced to Plaintiff without a non-waiver agreement. Defendant's counsel also stated that there was no final report.

Defendant argues that it has produced all responsive documents including the entire claims investigation file except for correspondence between Mr. Gray and attorney Debra Puebla, which it argues is subject to attorney-client privilege. In its Response brief Defendant states that it "authorized Mr. Gray to communicate with its legal counsel about the nature and scope of his investigation and findings to assist legal counsel in its coverage evaluation." Defendant argues that Mr. Gray was Defendant's agent and as such, his communications are protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege.

The Court notes that the parties have not properly briefed this issue with respect to Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and have incorporated by reference arguments from Plaintiff's August 30, 2010 motion to compel documents responsive to the Alan Gray Subpoena, which was denied by this Court. (Docket no. 43). The only privilege log related to Alan Gray documents which appears on the docket before the Court is the privilege log filed with Defendant's Response Brief in Opposition to Plaintiff's motion to compel relating to the subpoena served on Alan Gray. The Court must look to that set of pleadings to determine the sufficiency of Defendant's amended privilege log, and the Court will examine the only privilege log before it relating to the Alan Gray documents.

In a case “brought under the Court's diversity jurisdiction and featuring only state-law claims, Michigan law governs the scope of the attorney/client privilege. See Fed.R.Evid. 501.” Infosystems, Inc. v. Ceridian Corp., 197 F.R.D. 303, 305 n. 2 (E.D.Mich.2000). Under Michigan law, [t]he attorney-client privilege attaches to direct communication between a client and his attorney as well as communications made through their respective agents. The scope of the attorney-client privilege is narrow, attaching only to confidential communications by the client to his advisor that are made for the purpose of obtaining legal advice.

Leibel v. General Motors Corp., 250 Mich.App. 229, 646 N.W.2d 179, 183 (Mich.App.2002). “The privilege, however, cannot protect the actual facts underlying the information contained in a communication between attorney and client; the privilege protects only confidential communications between attorney and client.” State Farm Mutual Auto. Inc. Co. v. Hawkins, 2008 WL 5383855 at *2 (E.D.Mich. Dec.23, 2008) (citing Reed Dairy Farm v. Consumers Power Co., 227 Mich.App. 614, 576 N.W.2d 709, 712 (Mich.Ct.App.1998)). “Communications between an attorney and client which relate to business, rather than legal matters, do not fall within the protection of the attorney-client privilege.” Michigan First Credit Union v. Cumis Ins. Soc’y, Inc., 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 45202 at *5–6, 2006 WL 1851018 (E.D.Mich. July 5, 2006) (citing Coleman v. American Broadcasting Corp., Inc., 106 F.R.D. 201, 205 (D.D.C.1985)). The burden to show that a matter is not discoverable because it is privileged rests upon the party asserting privilege. Infosystems, Inc., 197 F.R.D. at 306.

*3 Defendant argues that Mr. Gray is its agent. As Plaintiff points out, Mr. Gray was hired almost two years prior to the filing of Plaintiff's lawsuit and Defendant's counter-claim. Defendant argues that Ms. Puebla was coverage counsel and did not undertake the claims investigation. Defendant's argument pointedly highlights the fine line set forth by the courts in determining whether a lawyer is acting in the capacity of a lawyer giving legal advice and not as an investigator working in an “ongoing, open investigation into a claim.” Mich. First Credit Union, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS at *6 (noting that one of the documents was dated “well before even the initial denial of the claim” and to protect the pre-November 2005 communications “from disclosure would give too broad a scope to attorney-client privilege, and in a larger sense would permit an insurer to construct a ‘shroud of secrecy’ by simply designating an attorney to conduct an otherwise ordinary claim investigation.” Id.).

Despite alleging this distinction in Ms. Puebla's capacity, Defendant's Amended Privilege Log (docket no. 48 Ex. K) and Redacted Log (relating to redacted portions of the Alan Gray documents, docket no. 48–1, 48–2, 48–3) do not “describe the nature of the documents, communications, or tangible things not produced or disclosed—... in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable other parties to assess the claim,” as required by Fed.R.Civ.P. 26\(b\)\(5\)\(A\)\(ii\).

Defendant's “Alan Gray Documents–Amended Privilege Log” sets forth the date of the document, author, recipients, persons copied, a “description” of the document, a “purpose” of the document and the privilege or claim, which are predominately “attorney-client privilege.” (Docket no. 48). Every “description” of a document states either “Email[s] relating to Alan Gray audit of Pulte claim files” or “Email[s] relating to Alan Gray report for audit of Pulte claim files.” Five entries on the Redacted Log describe an “Email related to Alan Gray, Inc.'s rates for services,” accounting document and/or a new file creation form and are identified as “confidential/proprietary; relevance” instead of attorney client privilege. (Docket no. 48–3). It does not appear that documents “GRAY000965,” “GRAY000966,” “GRAY000970,” “GRAY001190” and “GRAY001236” are at issue in this motion and they are not relevant to the issues in this action. Fed.R.Civ.P. 26\(b\)\(1\).

The “Purpose” of each document states that the communication is between, from and/or to AGLIC (Defendant), AGLIC's Counsel and/or AGLIC's agent and identifies the purpose of each document as the following: “[r]elated to AGLIC counsel's ongoing role in representing AGLIC in order to provide coverage analysis and legal advice as issues arise in connection with Pulte's demand for payment under policies.” (Docket no. 48 Ex. K, 48–1, 48–2, 48–3). Substantively, Defendant's descriptions of the documents and their respective purposes offer nothing more than a conclusory assertion that each document relates to the subject of this action and is “related” to legal advice, without any further information.

*4 Defendant has already amended this privilege log once and the parties have argued this issue at hearing. The Court does not find that a second amended privilege log will aid in showing that the documents are covered by the attorney-client privilege where Defendant has had the opportunity to establish privilege in a privilege log, an amended log, its brief and at hearing and has failed to do so. The Court is left to speculate as to whether any legal advice was sought or given with respect to each document.

Furthermore, despite the unsupported allegation that Ms. Puebla is coverage counsel and did not undertake the claims investigation(s), the timeline of the “Alan Gray” documents in conjunction with Plaintiff's demands for payment weigh in favor of concluding that these communications were related to business and an ongoing investigation of the claims at issue. Defendant's boilerplate descriptions in the privilege log, despite the allegation that the documents are “related to” counsel's role in providing legal advice, are not inconsistent with this finding. The privilege logs describe counsel's “ongoing role” in providing coverage analysis and fail on a basic level to clearly assert whether each document seeks or conveys legal advice FN2. Defendant has simply failed to meet its burden of showing that these documents are not discoverable.

FN2. The Court also notes that Defendant has been, to date, unwilling to provide a date or time frame when its investigation became or was undertaken in anticipation of litigation.

Request for Production No. 32 seeks “[a]ll communications with Zurich's reinsurance companies concerning the Claim.” The Court finds that this request is overly broad and not limited to relevant information and documents. The Court will deny Plaintiff's motion as to Request for Production No. 32. Fed.R.Civ.P. 26\(b\)\(1\).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion To Compel American Guarantee And Liability Insurance Company To Produce Complete Responses To Discovery (docket no. 53) is GRANTED as to Request For Production Nos. 21 and 22 related to the Alan Gray documents, is DENIED as to Request For Production No. 32 and is further GRANTED in part and DENIED in part as set forth herein and on the record.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant will produce all amended answers and full responses as ordered within thirty (30) days of entry of this Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that payment of attorneys fees and costs will not be ordered. Fed.R.Civ.P. 37\(a\)\(5\)\(A\)\(ii\), \(iii\).
